

DiVosta Closes On Wellington Land For Canter, A New Community Of Farmhouse-Style Luxury Homes

NOVEMBER 22, 2024

The exclusive community features just 42 residences

DiVosta, the luxury-home brand offered by PulteGroup, purchased 22.5 acres of unused church land in the Village of Wellington for its upcoming Canter community. The site is located at the intersection of Lake Worth Road and 120th Avenue South, behind the Therese De Lisieux Catholic Church. The Diocese of Palm Beach sold the property to DiVosta.

DiVosta is planning 42 estate lots in the gated community, which will accommodate one-story and two-story luxury farmhouses and coastal-style homes ranging from 3,301 to 5,376 square feet. Buyers can personalize their homes with designer options, including gourmet kitchens outfitted with premium Wolf appliances. Prices are expected to start at $1.5 million.

“The farmhouse architectural style will make Canter a landmark community,” said Brent Baker, Division President for PulteGroup in South Florida. “The theme will blend the best of Wellington’s equestrian lifestyle with the high-quality home construction for which DiVosta is known.”

The development is near top-rated schools and offers convenient access to the Florida Turnpike and other major roads.

DiVosta already has a significant presence in central and western Palm Beach County including Amara, Greyhawk Landing, Hendrix Reserve, and Windsong Estates in Lake Worth Beach.
